Membership terms and conditions

Code of conduct

1. Major Tonic aims to create a safe and positive environment for all its members, where all members are able to obtain the most from their participation in our events. In order to do this, we must ensure acceptable standards of behaviour from our members.
2. All members should be punctual to rehearsals and adhere to times and guidelines set by Major Tonic
3. All members should respond to the leadership of the musical director and official or volunteer staff members.
4. Members should be co-operative with both staff, volunteers and fellow members, and uphold an equal-opportunity environment. Any negative behaviour towards others, the musical director or to the rehearsal and performance environment will lead to cancellation of membership. In this case, membership payment will not be refunded.
5. Members should understand clearly that Major Tonic cannot be held financially responsible for damage caused by misconduct.

Membership

1. Major Tonic reserves the right to refuse admission of any member who does not fulfil the requirements or who is deemed to be joining Major Tonic to abuse their membership to access the intellectual property or brand owned by Aquawebb Ltd, trading as Major Tonic.
2. Major Tonic will provide a suitable number of rehearsals in the lead up to each event so that the choir may be properly and professionally prepared to take part in that event.
3. Costs for participation may vary according to the nature of the event. Costs will be made clear for each event. By signing up to the event you are committing to pay the full subscriptions for the event. Members accept the subscriptions conditions as outlined in the SUBSCRIPTION document.
5. In making an application, members are assumed to be medically fit to undertake the vocal and physical demands of participation in Major Tonic events. If an individual has any doubts, these should be indicated to Major Tonic prior to their application.
6. Major Tonic reserves the right to photograph, sound record, video any production of all the members (complying fully with child safety laws etc) and used for advertising and marketing purposes in relation to Major Tonic for our own promotional use.
7. Major Tonic reserves the right to alter the schedule of rehearsals to fit in with performances and other events that may be taking place.

8. In the event of cancellation due to bad weather (snow for example) or pandemic, we regret that no refunds can be given. Major Tonic however will make every effort to open the venue or provide alternative ways of rehearsing/performing. For instance online.

9. Membership of our Facebook and Twitter group(s) and website Members' area is dependant on an active full membership or non-active Associate Membership. Unfortunately we cannot accommodate members who have cancelled or suspended their membership.

9A. The administrators of Major Tonic reserve the right to remove any inappropriate remarks, comments, photos and videos that may compromise its intellectual property and the feelings and privacy of its members. Major Tonic reserves the right to block a member from any social media platform without warning if inappropriate remarks are made.

10. WhatsApp Major Tonic group is run by choir members for active full choir members and active associate members, and Major Tonic accepts no liability or responsibility for its upkeep or content.

11. Membership gives access to our Members' area where updates are made about rehearsals etc. Teaching tracks and learning material are available only by email. Members undertake not to share this material beyond the choir.

12. There is an upper limit of 30 members for the choir.

13. Aquawebb Ltd reserves the right to close down Major Tonic and its activities including choirs with no liability to members without notice. The sessions will continue as scheduled until the end of the term in process.

14. In the event of Members or Associate Members or singers joining the choir after music has been prepared by the existing active choir, no extra time can be spent in rehearsals for Members or Associate Members or singers preparing for this music.

15. Associate Members or singers joining the choir, after the music has been prepared by the existing active choir, can participate in any future concerts at the discretion of the Musical Director by being assessed by the learning achieved.

Health and safety

1. Major Tonic is not responsible for damage to person or personal belongings whilst attending rehearsals and performances and social events or before and after rehearsals and performances.

2. Major Tonic members are responsible for their own property and well-being whilst attending all rehearsals and performances.

3. Travel arrangements are to be made by each member to rehearsals and performances.

4. Choir members will keep themselves updated about the relevant Covid-19 Safe advice from government and the risk assessments for any face-to-face rehearsals or performances for venues we use. Attendance at any live sessions are entirely the decision of choir members with no liability for this from Aquawebb Ltd.
